BEYOND SMART CITIES'S CCXS CERTIFICATION PROGRAM
The Beyond Smart Cities (BSC) is a Green Technology - Work marketplace that helps independent third-party commissioning professionals advance their careers. The BSC & BEYOND GREEN BUILDING COUNCIL - BGBC is a group of GREEN TECHNOLOGY companies that came together in 2020. BGBC is a non-profit group whose main goals are independence, certification, and training and education. Companies that meet the requirements can join a group of professionals who are committed to giving the best service and fighting for the independence of commissioning service providers.
The ideal commissioning provider-building owner contract involves an independent, qualified commissioning authority under contract to the owner. To guarantee the owner gets the building performance they anticipate, a third party consultant adds impartiality and practical knowledge. Beyond smart cities prime members are autonomous.
